

CAMPARI ACADEMY

ABOUT DENNIS DORWARTH

During his photography studies, Dennis worked in the hospitality industry and various bars. This experience quickly ignited his passion for capturing the artistry of bartenders through photography.

Since then, Dennis has primarily worked with hospitality brands, diverse business clients, and the advertising industry worldwide. He believes that photography plays a vital role in all aspects of life, using his skills to tell compelling visual stories that resonate across cultures and industries.